

Team Total 2010

Member	Class	Profile
J-P Damseaux	Class S2000	J-P is the son of retired, multiple national rally champion Serge Damseaux. He joined Team Total in 1998 (J-P and Craig Trott are the longest serving members of the team) and has been rallying since 1996. He has his own business preparing rally cars and lives in Somerset West.
Fernando Rueda	Class S2000	A motorcar trader by profession, Fernando has been rallying since 1998 and joined Team Total in 2006. The highlight of his career as a driver was winning the African Rally Championship in a Mitsubishi Lancer Evo 6 in 2003.
Craig Trott	Class A6	Craig is a self-employed clothing retailer from Durban, who has been rallying since the early 1980s. He joined Team Total in 1998 and has won his class championship four times.
Mohammed Moosa	Class A6	Mohammed is a self-employed hardware-building merchant from Tzaneen. He has been rallying since 2005. He joined Team Total in 2006 and enjoyed his best overall finish with eighth position in last year's Tour Natal.